

Tomekia Moore, a graduate of Beloved Woman, founded The Moore Camp and Children's University. She holds an Associate's Degree in technology, A BA in Business Administration, a Master's in Education and Pro Solutions Certification for Childcare. She is certified in special education and has taught children of all ages from infants to young adults. She served at Orange Grove working with intellectually disabled youth and adults as a DSP case worker and house manager.