

Sherry is an ordained, United Methodist minister, author and singer/songwriter. She has served as the senior pastor in urban UM churches in Nashville and Chattanooga for the past 12 years, and served as Associate Pastor at Second Presbyterian, Chattanooga prior to founding Beloved Woman in 2020. Sherry received a Masters of Divinity from Vanderbilt Divinity and has since received two grants from the Louisville Institute to write and study projects that advance social justice and faith. Sherry served as the artist in residence at Louisville Presbyterian Seminary in 2015 and is the author of two books. Learn more about Sherry at <http://www.sherrycothran.com/>